Interdisciplinary Programme on Palliative and End-of-life Care

The Interdisciplinary Programme on Palliative and End-of-life Care' has been developed in cooperation with 7 European Universities and 2 North-American Universities: University of Connecticut (UCONN) and the University of Kansas Medical Center (KUMC). In January 2019 the project will be organized in two parts: a Preparatory Programme and an Intensive Programme in Ghent, Belgium, 27th January till 1st February 2019.

Part 1: Preparatory Programme:

Participants have the option to stay in Ghent and take a 'pre-programme' in face-to-face education from 22th till 25th January 2019.

Topics: community health care, active ageing, mental health and oncology.

Preparatory work can also be done in distance learning. This includes assignments such as a personal introduction on Facebook, some reading, preparing of a presentation and a study 'visit@home'.

Part 2: Intensive Programme

Topics: introduction to palliative and end-of-life care, communication with clients, bereavement, family and environment; ethical issues related to end-of-life decisions and euthanasia, spiritual and existential pain; caregiver's perspective; intercultural issues.

Workshops: complementary care and interdisciplinary cooperation (haptonomy, aromatherapy, reiki, art therapy).

Student project: hands-on practice during workshops in nursing homes for elderly.

Time and venue: Ghent, Belgium

"Ghent is one of the four creative cities of music along with Bologna, Seville and Glasgow. 'Ghent with its numerous music festival integrates music in the fabric of the city, encouraging public participation.'"

UNESCO

Why Ghent?

- Because Lonely Planet has called our city "Europe's best kept secret".
- Because National Geographic Traveler Magazine has listed this city as the most authentic historic city in the world and full of life.
- Because you must witness with your own eyes what Napoleon and the mysterious thief of 'The Just Judges' panel already knew: The Mystic Lamb really is key to European art history.
- Because the city comes to life again after sunset.
- And of course because you like to get off the beaten track! ...that's why!!
