

GENERAL ASSEMBLY 2022

Online, 2.12.2022

In 2021 the Covid pandemic continued to dominate the news and consequently challenged COEHRE to be creative and flexible to support our members during these testing times. COEHRE was adamant to anticipate the needs of the members. We have risen to the challenges and rode a creative wave, keeping a close eye on evolutions, which resulted in a wide array of virtual events. An online platform was offered to keep a finger on the pulse, to share and to be inspired. The activities and the energy that bounced off the webinars resulted in a great deal of networking and forging new relationships with other institutions.

COEHRE went on with the same dynamic, perseverance, dedication, and the newly regained freedom, organising numerous activities for staff and students in different formats. From last year's ever-changing landscape, we brought a variety of formats (online, blended, live activities) to the table which allows more people to participate.

Finally, after two years of online networking, we could meet up again at our conference in Rotterdam hosted by Rotterdam University of Applied Sciences! A vibrant place to meet, share and exchange knowledge and ideas.

The council has continued its work on the mission and strategy of the COEHRE branches and are taking the recession in their stride. The best approach to the recession is based on problem definition. The council has been analysing the problem definition and is working on an action plan for 2023.

3.1. Council member (Academy)

António Dos Santos Ferreira was elected council member (Academy)

A heartfelt goodbye to a long serving member of the COEHRE family, Aija Ahokas, who invested a lot of time and energy into steering the Academy forward as well as COEHRE as a board member.

The elections have brought the COEHRE Council to a new team consisting of:

Patricia Claessens, Artevelde University of Applied Sciences, Belgium

Ester Goutan Roura, Uvic-UCC, Spain

Annemie Spooren, PXL, Belgium

Marc Elie, HAN, The Netherlands

Margit Eidenberger, FH-Gesundheitsberufe OÖ GmbH, Austria

António Dos Santos Ferreira, ESS+, Portugal

4. ACTIVITIES
