

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Online, 19.12.24

1. Welcome

1.1. Introduction

Reflecting on past events, it has been noted that both COVID-19 and inflation have significantly affected not only individuals but also COHEHRE. This situation resulted in a disruption of one of our core strengths—active networking—and led to tighter budget constraints. Nevertheless, we managed to provide training sessions for our members. These trying times prompted a reevaluation of our organizational structure, leading to gradual changes.

Since that period, we have achieved considerable progress and continue to strengthen our network daily. The most recent conference served as an inspiring gathering, characterized by reconnections, knowledge sharing, and numerous valuable insights.

Looking ahead, we have several activities planned to reinforce our commitment to connecting, learning, exchanging, and sharing.

1.2. Apologies

The minutes of the General Assembly will be forwarded to all members, so that everybody is updated on the recent developments within the organisation.
